Panchayati Raj Institutions

- The establishment of Local Self Governing Institutions was so far erratic and at the whims of the State Government
- For long periods, no elections to Panchayats were held
- Now the 73rd& 74th Constitutional Amendment have become applicable
- Constitutional status has been given to local self governments in Rural & Urban areas
- All provisions relating to Panchayats and local self governments to be fully applicable
- Panchayats will now get direct funding- people will decide their own developmental priorities
- This will lead to strengthening of grass roots democracy

Benefits to Scheduled Castes and OBCs

- SC employees were not getting full benefits of reservation especially in promotion like their colleagues in the rest of the country
- Safai karamcharies in the state were being denied citizenship rights- as a result they could not get jobs forcing them to remain sanitation workers
- All safai karamcharies will now get full citizenship and other rights and benefits- Manual scavenging will stop
- National Commission for Safai Karamchari Act, 1993 will now apply
- This will improve working conditions of Safai karamcharies and provide for redressal of grievances
- OBCs in J&K to get their due in employment and education- they will get full benefits of reservation now like in the rest of the country

Benefits for Scheduled Tribes

- Despite having nearly 12% population, the ST community (Gujjars, Bakerwals and others) had no political reservation
- STs will now get political representation through reservation in Assembly seats like in the rest of the country
- The Scheduled Tribes & other Traditional Forest Dwellers (Recognition of Forest Rights) Act, 2006 has now been made applicable. There was no corresponding State Act.
- Rights of Tribal/ST Communities residing in forests since generations will now be protected.

Gender discrimination to end- Women to get full rights

- Property and all other rights of women marrying outside the State will now be fully protected
- So many women from the state have married and settled in other parts of the country and even abroad
- All such women will now retain full and legal rights on land and all other rights
- All Central Acts and Laws protecting the rights of women and children to be made fully applicable to the State e.g. Prohibition of Child Marriage Act, Protection of Women from Domestic Violence Act, Juvenile Justice Act etc.
- The Commission for Protection of Child Rights Act, 2005 provides for speedy trial of offences against children, violation of child rights etc. This act will now be applicable here and will ensure adequate protection of women and child rights

106 people friendly laws and 9 constitutional amendments of the Indian Constitution now to be made applicable

- Earlier applicability of Central Laws to Jammu and Kashmir (J&K) was limited
- No Central Act could be made applicable to J&K except through special procedure
- As a result, many laws could not be applied to J&K thereby depriving the local residents of the benefits of these legislations
- So many progressive laws such as Right to Education, Maintenance & Welfare of Parents & Senior Citizens Act, 2001, National Commission for Minority Act and acts for benefit of Women, Children, Disabled will now be applicable
- The application of these laws will help the most vulnerable sections of the population

Justice for West Pakistan Refugees (WPRs)

- Over 20,000 West Pakistan Refugees (WPRs) were hitherto aliens in their own country
- They were denied all democratic rights as well as citizenship and property rights
- They will now enjoy all democratic and other rights as citizens of the country

AYUSHMAN BHARAT SCHEME

Ayushman Bharat scheme was launched about an year back in Jammu & Kashmir. The scheme continues to be implemented in J&K. Total number of cases done under the scheme from 5th August onwards till date is 11468 (On Transaction Management System) excluding offline cases reported the number of such cases is 6500. It is stated that approximately 18000 cases have been attended. Further following steps have been taken to ensure uninterrupted treatment of beneficiaries under the scheme :

1. Relaxation in pre-authorisation raising for all cases requiring pre-authorization
2. Relaxation in 7 days bar for registering cases on Transaction Management System. Now there is no bar in registering cases on TMS.
3. Internet facilities at Bajaj Allianz (service providers) office at Srinagar and Jammu, where hospitals regularly register and upload cases.
4. Offline mode of registering cases started and offline mode of processing claims being worked out at National Health Authority level.
5. Placement of Bajaj Allianz staff at all tertiary care and District Hospitals for assistance in provision of services.
